Checkpoint 3

Visitor	Hotel owner
After a long journey you arrive late at night at the hotel where you are staying. You are very hungry, so you ask the owner if there is a café or bar at the hotel still open. You fancy a sandwich and a sweet. Start the conversation by greeting the man/woman at the reception, saying your name and that you have a room booked.	You are the owner of Hotel Boa Vista. A new guest arrives at the hotel very late at night and asks about places to eat. It is too late now as the bar is closed. All the restaurants nearby are closed as well. You can tell he is very tired and hungry, so eventually you decide to offer him some snacks: 1. cabbage soup and bread 2. cheese and biscuits (bolachas) 3. fruit salad or crème caramel The guest starts the conversation.
