

Contents

1 Selecting and applying your own knowledge
Get started	1
The Western Front	3
1 How do I identify relevant features?	5
2 How do I add relevant detail?	6
3 How do I know how much to write?	7
Sample response	8
Your turn!	9
Review your skills	10
2 Following up a source
Get started	11
Medicine on the Western Front	13
1 How do I identify details in the source?	15
2 How do I ask good questions about the source?	16
3 How do I select valid methods of answering my question?	17
Sample response	18
Your turn!	19
Review your skills	20
3 Source provenance, usefulness and reliability
Get started	21
Medicine on the Western Front	23
1 How do I identify what is useful to an historian?	25
2 How do I identify the limitations of a source?	26
3 How do I include judgements about the provenance of the source?	27
Sample response	28
Your turn!	29
Review your skills	30
4 Answering relevantly
Get started	31
Causes of disease	33
1 How do I read the question?	35
2 How do I identify relevant detail?	36
3 How do I ensure I answer the question?	37
Sample response	38
Your turn!	39
Review your skills	40
5 Selecting and using supporting evidence
Get started	41
Medieval ideas on the causes of disease	43
1 How do I select information to answer the question?	45
2 How do I ensure that information is relevant to the concept focus?	46
3 How do I use information of my own?	47
Sample response	48
Your turn!	49
Review your skills	50
6 Understanding change
Get started	51
Changes in medicine, 1500–1900	53
1 How do I know what makes a change historically significant?	55
2 How do I distinguish between change and continuity?	56
3 How do I decide how significant change is?	57
Sample response	58
Your turn!	59
Review your skills	60
7 Making links between points
Get started	61
Changes in surgical treatments, 1500–1900	63
1 How do I know when to use linking phrases?	65
2 How do I make links to develop my supporting knowledge?	66
3 How do I link my ideas and supporting detail back to the question?	67
Sample response	68
Your turn!	69
Review your skills	70
8 Making a judgement
Get started	71
The fight against disease	73
1 How do I organize factors to reach a judgement?	75
2 How do I make judgements?	76
3 How do I make a good judgement?	77
Sample response	78
Your turn!	79
Review your skills	80
Answers	81