

What do we know?

Add ideas about Ancient Egypt and Tutankhamen to the spider diagram to show what you know.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Tutankhamen

Complete the facts about Tutankhamen by drawing lines to match the sentence starters to their endings.

Tutankhamen
was one of the most famous ...

He was only nine ...

Tutankhamen was nineteen ...

In Ancient Egypt, pharaohs were buried ...

Since Tutankhamen's tomb looked ordinary, his grave was not ...

... discovered for thousands of years.

... when he died.

... when he came to the throne.

... with amazing
gold and beautiful treasures.

... pharaohs to rule
Egypt.

Name: _____

Date: _____

The facts so far

Complete the sentences using three key facts that you have discovered.

Key fact 1

In ancient Egypt, the Pharaohs _____

Key fact 2

Pharaoh Tutankhamen was _____

Key fact 3

Two possible suspects were _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

A tense story

Write a story about Popov.
Describe what happened to him yesterday, today and what will happen to him tomorrow.

Yesterday's story

Yesterday, Popov had _____

Today's story

Today, Popov is _____

Tomorrow's story

Tomorrow, Popov will _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

A secret plan

Write a letter from Horemheb to Ay explaining his secret plan to become Pharaoh. Don't forget to check your tenses!

Dear Ay,

I am writing to you in secret to share my plan.

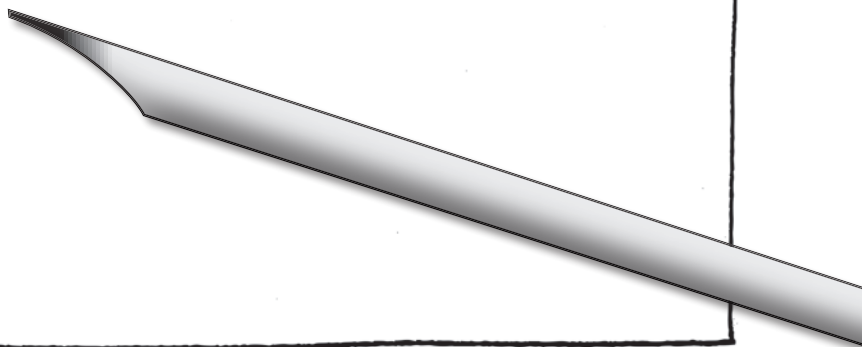

Yesterday, Tutankhamen said _____

This gave me an idea. I think tomorrow we should

In the future we could _____

Yours sincerely,

Horemheb

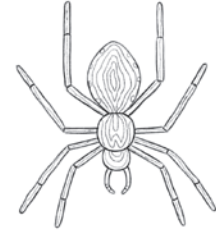

Name: _____

Date: _____

My silly sentences

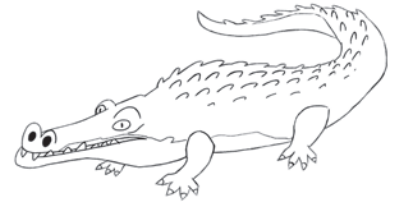

Complete the silly sentences using both of the two nouns!

tomb → spiders

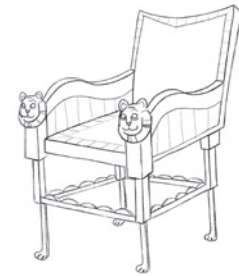

Before Jo went into the tomb, he had tea with a spider.

Tutankhamen → crocodile

When _____

gold throne → curse

After _____

treasure → mummy

While _____

bandages → brain

Because _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

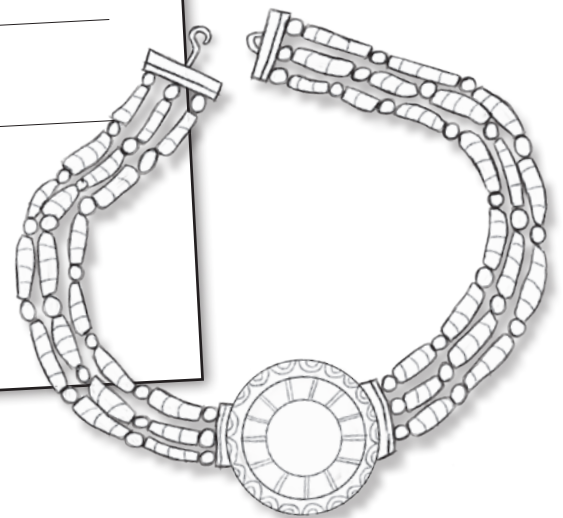

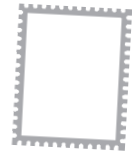

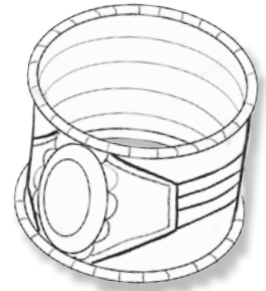

British Museum

Complete the letter to the British Museum.
Describe what you know about the treasures found in Tutankhamen's tomb.

Dear Curator,

The treasures in Tutankhamen's tomb are fantastic! The most beautiful treasure was _____

Yours sincerely,

Word Bank

Tutankhamen tomb treasure statue robber

Name: _____

Date: _____

Conversations using the perfect tense

Practise these conversations with your partner.

Pupil A: Have you seen the moon tonight?

Pupil B: Yes, I have seen it. It's a full moon.

Pupil A: Have you been finding out about Ancient Egypt?

Pupil B: Yes, I have been learning about Tutankhamen.

Pupil A: Where have you been?

Pupil B: I have been ...

Pupil A: Which television programmes have you seen this week?

Pupil B: I have seen ...

Make up your own questions using these question starters. Ask your partner to answer the questions using 'have' or 'has', then swap roles.

Has Tutankhamen ...?

Where has ...?

Did Ancient Egypt have ...?

Where have ...?

Has the Nile ever ...?

Have you ...?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Papyrus making

Add a title and conjunctions to the instructions for how to make a piece of papyrus?

Word Bank

First and Next so Then because After three days Finally

Title: _____

_____ get some papyrus stalks _____ cut the core into thin strips using a pruner.

_____ soak the strips in water for three days
_____ the natural glue-like chemicals are released.

_____ take the strips out of the water and roll them flat to remove the water.

Lay the dried strips of papyrus next to each other on a piece of linen cloth so that they touch slightly.

Add another layer of strips going in the opposite direction to the first layer.

Cover the papyrus with another layer of linen cloth.

The papyrus is then placed between two boards of wood _____ it needs to be pressed flat. It also needs to dry.

_____ remove the boards and linen cloth.

_____ rub the papyrus smooth with a stone.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Explanation plan

Using these headings, write three paragraphs to explain what we know about Tutankhamen.

Title: _____

Who was Tutankhamen?

How do we know about him?

What happened to Tutankhamen?

TOP SECRET

